1. As a guide member may claim out of pocket expenses for telephone calls, stationary, postage, fuel and hospitality when representing the group in an official capacity, including training and promotional events. Normally claims will not be accepted for acting as assessors, marshals or speakers at group events.
2. Claims should not be submitted for payment on the standard form above. Where possible receipts should be obtained and attached to the claim form.
3. Where it is expected that claims will exceed £15 prior advise must be sought from the treasurer or executive committee member for sanctioning prior to submission for payment
